

Seductive. Mysterious. Challenging.

Flame Run Glass Studio & Gallery

At 13,000 square feet, Flame Run Glass Studio & Gallery is the largest glass blowing facility in Kentucky and the surrounding region. Between St. Louis and Pittsburgh, there is one place that welcomes visitors to watch molten glass transform into breathtaking works of art: Flame Run Glass Studio & Gallery in Louisville, Ky.

Owners Susie Slabaugh and Brook Forrest White, Jr. have established an atmosphere of creativity and teamwork for artists, collectors, students, and glass enthusiasts alike.

From the roaring fires of the hotshop to the gallery of finished work, Flame Run Glass Studio & Gallery serves up an endless array of the total glass experience: studio and gallery tours, hot glass demonstrations, community classes, private lessons, special events, teambuilding seminars, and studio rental.

Flame Run Glass Studio & Gallery is a working studio where tours are encouraged. Tour guides are resident glass artists with first-hand experience in the entire glass blowing process.
